CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE I.

NAME.

This Club shall be known as the "OTTAWA CANOE CLUB."

ARTICLE II.

OBJECT.

The object of the Club shall be to unite the amateur canoeists of Ottawa by means of meetings for business or pleasure; by camping, cruising, paddling, sailing and racing; by keeping logs of voyages, records of waterways and routes, details and drawings of canoes, collections of maps, charts and books, and by the acquirement and maintenance of club houses and camping grounds.

ARTICLE III.

MEMBERSHIP.

Sec. 1.—There shall be four classes of members, viz.: honorary, active, life and junior.

Sec. 2.—Every member on his election shall be held to have notice of and be bound by the Constitution, By-Laws and Rules of the Club.

HONORARY.

Sec. 3.—Honorary members may be elected for the then current year by a unanimous vote of the Executive Committee, and shall be entitled to all the privileges of the Club without payment of the annual fee.

ACTIVE.

Sec. 4.—Applicants for active memdership shall sign an application form and shall be proposed and seconded by members of the Club, and the names of the applicant and his proposer and seconder shall be posted on the bulletin board in the Club House for one week. If no objection be taken during this period, the Secretary-Treasurer may, with the approval of any two members of the Executive Committee, declare such applicant elected.

Sec. 5.—It a member notify any member of the Executive Committee, in writing, of his objection to such applicant, the applicant may then only be elected by a unanimous vote of the Executive Committee.

Sec. 6.—Prior to the first day of May members shall be elected by a unanimous vote of the Executive Committee in lieu of posting as described in section 4, but the name of every applicant for membership shall also be posted as soon as the canoeing season opens.

LIFE.

Sec. 7.—Any one, upon election, may become a life member upon payment of fifty dollars, or by the transfer to the Club of five shares in "The Ottawa Canoe Club House Company." Life members shall be entitled to all the privileges of the Club.

JUNIOR.

Sec. 8.—Boys between the ages of twelve and sixteen may become junior members upon being elected in the manner provided for active members. Junior members may not vote, hold office, or introduce strangers or visiting members to the Club House.

ARTICLE IV.

VISITING MEMBERS.

Sec. 1.—Any member may introduce as a visiting member, for a period not exceeding three weeks in any one year, any person resident at a distance of not less than twenty miles from Ottawa, provided his name be approved by one member of the Executive Committee.

Sec. 2.—The names of all visiting members shall be entered in the Visitors' Book, with the period for which they are admitted, together with the names of the members by whom introduced and approved.

ARTICLE V.

FEES.

Sec. 1.—The annual fee for an active member shall be three dollars and fifty cents, and for a junior member, one dollar, and shall be payable on or before the first day of May in each year.

Sec. 2.—The fees of members elected after May first shall be due on election, and no member shall be admitted to the privileges of the Club until his fees are paid.

Sec. 3.—It shall be optional with the Executive Committee to post any defaulter after the 15th day of June, but any member whose annual fee is unpaid by the first day of August shall ipso facto cease to be a member, and the Secretary-Treasurer shall strike his name off the Roll, and notify him to this effect.

Sec. 4.—Any member struck off for non-payment of fees shall still be liable for all arrears, and shall not be reinstated without payment thereof.

ARTICLE VI.

RESIGNATION.

Sec. 1.—Any member desiring to resign must pay all arrears, and must notify the Secretary-Treasurer in writing before the 15th day of June. Every resignation shall be submitted to the Executive Committee, and the member shall be notified by the Secretary-Treasurer of the action taken.

Sec. 2.—No resignation shall be accepted after the 15th day of June, except upon payment of all fees and dues for the current year, in addition to all arrears.
